SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of:

5 years

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☒ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☒ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: John Edmerson

CASE NUMBER: 1:24-cr-10

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. DEFENDANT: John Edmerson

CASE NUMBER: 1:24-cr-10

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- (1) Shall participate in the Home Detention component of the location monitoring program for a period of 180 days. While on home detention in the location monitoring program, defendant is restricted to his residence at all times, except for employment; education; religious services; medical, substance abuse, or mental health treatment; attorney visits; court appearances; court-ordered obligations; or other activities as preapproved by the officer. The defendant shall be monitored by use of Radio Frequency (RF). The defendant shall abide by all of the requirements established by the probation office related to the use of this location monitoring technology. The defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of location monitoring based on his ability to pay as determined by the probation officer.
- (2) Shall not possess, or view material, images, videos or computer files containing sexually explicit conduct as defined by 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2)(A) and (B).
- (3) Shall participate in a program of mental health assessment and/or counseling, as directed by the United States Probation Office, until such time as the defendant is released from such program by the probation office. The defendant will make a co-payment for treatment services not to exceed $25 per month, which is determined by the defendant's ability to pay.
- (4) Shall participate in a sexual offender treatment program, to include a sex offender risk assessment, psycho-sexual evaluation and/or other evaluations needed. The defendant shall follow the rules and regulations of the sex offender treatment program as approved by the probation office. The defendant shall sign all necessary authorization forms to release confidential information so that treatment providers, the probation officer, polygraph examiner, and others (as necessary) are allowed to communicate openly about the defendant's course of treatment, and progress in treatment. The defendant shall make a co-payment for sex offender treatment services not to exceed $25 per month, which is determined by the probation officer's assessment of the defendant's ability to pay.
- (5) Shall be subject to periodic polygraph examinations at the discretion and direction of the probation officer as a means to ensure that the defendant is in compliance with the requirements of the defendant's supervision or treatment. The polygraph testing will be at the defendant's expense, based on the probation officer's assessment of the defendant's ability to pay.
- (6) Shall have his residence and employment pre-approved by the probation officer and must be in compliance with state and local law.
- (7) Shall submit to the installation of software, and to monitor computer activities on any computer the defendant is authorized to use at the defendant's expense. The software will record any and all activities on the defendant's computer. The software will be checked on a periodic basis. The defendant has no expectations of privacy regarding computer use or information stored on the computer and shall make other users of said computer aware of the monitoring software. The defendant understands that any information gathered by said software may be used against the defendant in subsequent court actions regarding the defendant's computer use and the conditions of supervision. Furthermore, the defendant shall comply with the rules set forth in the Computer and Internet Monitoring Agreement and the Computer and Internet Acceptable Use Agreement as adopted by the Southern District of Ohio.
- (8) Shall, in consideration of 18 U.S.C. § 3583(d)(3), submit and/or surrender any media device, to which the defendant has access and/or control, to a search based on reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision. A media device is defined as, but not limited to, any device which is capable of accessing the internet, storing images, text, or other forms of electronic communication.
- (9) Shall have no unsupervised contact with any minor children. The term contact extends to all forms of communication such as mail, telephone, and other forms of electronic communication. This provision does not encompass persons under age 18 such as ticket vendors, cashiers, and waiters, etc. to whom the defendant must deal with in order to obtain ordinary and usual commercial services. The defendant shall be prohibited from loitering where minors congregate, such as playgrounds, arcades, amusement parks, recreation parks, sporting events, shopping malls, swimming pools, etc.
